Description

Set of Liturgical Cruets in Engraved and Silvered Crystal - 19th Century. An elegant set of liturgical cruets comprising two cruets with removable lids, a covered central vessel, and a matching serving tray. DescriptionThe set is made of clear glass decorated with rich arabesques and foliate scrolls, combining engraved motifs with silver and gold-tinted ornaments. The two baluster-shaped cruets have long, curved handles and slender spouts. They are adorned with the sacred monogram IHS surmounted by a cross, inscribed within a decorative wreath. The central vessel, resting on a pedestal, has a domed lid topped with a small cross, recalling the religious purpose of this set. The oval tray, with a scalloped and undulating rim, features a ribbed, radiating base and a
