Description

A beautiful walnut glass cabinet from the second half of the 19th century, richly hand-carved throughout. The cabinet features details of refined cabinetmaking craftsmanship: two winged dragons framing the cornice with a central coat of arms; two deeply carved faces decorating the upper portions of the two side posts, which are themselves carved with continuous natural motifs; the large grotesque mask positioned centrally on the cabinet's tympanum, as well as the two that also serve as handles on the bottom drawer. Of particular note is the craftsmanship of the large period blown-glass panes, which create an extremely evocative visual effect of the contents displayed inside.Dimensions of the cabinet: 138 x 49 cm - height: 240 cmTotal dimensions including the cornice (which may be
