Description

Worker table lacquered wood enhanced with gilding rich decoration of various Chinese characters in landscapes of pagodas and gardens, leaving revealing several compartments and sewing lockers with various elements of sewing (beef bone), lyre stand with spacer and legs of lions, Napoleon III nineteenth century. This worker is in his juice. We do not have his key. There may be a zipper at the waist. A note: accidents and lack of wood in places (especially on the edges of the plate), slits and restorations on a lyre foot, wear and leap lacquer in places (especially on the plateau), some wear and scratches on the gilding, lack of sewing elements, some bone covers are a little damaged, look at the pictures (see red arrows).
