Description

Louis XVI-style chest of drawers with sliding doorsAn elegant mahogany chest of drawers featuring a front with two sliding-slat doors, framed by fluted side panels. It rests on four tapered, turned legs, topped with brass feet.Its reddish-brown marble top with natural veining highlights the richness of the mahogany's patina. The marble has been restored. The piece stands out for its clean lines, balanced proportions, and neoclassical refinement.An elegant and decorative storage piece that blends seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors.Fluted uprights: an antique-inspired element typical of the neoclassical style.Tapered, turned legs: they visually lighten the piece and give it a certain height.Brass or bronze finials: a discreet and refined finish at the tips of the
