Description

Square Photograph from the renowned "Liquids" series by Ortwin Klipp, a body of work the artist has been developing continuously since 1999. In this long-term series of works, pure water surfaces are photographed, sometimes in close-up, and localized. Each location appears highly individual, with its own unique water and light qualities, and has its own recognizable character. LIQUIDS 2139 was created at Cap Formentor on Mallorca. The photograph is presented behind glass in a high-quality studio frame. Image size: 40 × 40 cm. Ortwin Klipp (born 1977) is a German graphic designer and artist. After studying graphic design in Munich, he worked as an assistant to Venice Biennale artist René Chacón and has been working independently since 2000. His work has been
