Description

Pair of Napoleon III Gilt Bronze and Enamel Picture Frames, Circa 1840An extremely rare pair of high-quality early Napoleon III period picture frames, dating to the 1840s. These fine examples are crafted in richly cast gilt bronze, with bright, crisp enamel decoration that closely resembles solid gold in appearance.The frames are elaborately chiselled with flowing garlands, classical wreaths, and friezes of flowers, demonstrating the exceptional craftsmanship associated with the finest French production of the period. The gilt bronze extends to both the front and back, reflecting their superior quality and attention to detail.Presented in superb condition, these frames are ready for immediate use and would make an elegant addition to any fine antique collection or
