Description

An imposing centerpiece or antique ceremonial platter in the Louis XV/Rocaille style, dating from the late 19th century (Napoleon III era). Crafted from beautiful, thick cast bronze (or solid brass), chiseled and silver-plated, this piece stands out for the finesse of its details and its remarkable weight. Its central, multi-lobed basin is adorned with a high-relief depiction of a cherub (putto) surrounded by foliage, seashells, and floral motifs. It is flanked by two large, openwork side handles with flowing, curvilinear shapes. A highly decorative piece suitable for use as a centerpiece, a serving bowl, or a large, characterful trinket dish.
