Description

Monumental Brass Torchiere Floor Lamp, in the Stilnovo StyleItalian work, circa 1965-1975A refined and architecturally balanced brass torchiere floor lamp composed of a slender column rising from a stepped circular base and culminating in a wide fluted conical uplighter shade.The finely ribbed shade creates a subtle play of reflected light, enhancing the warmth of the brass surface. The proportions (H 170 cm) are particularly harmonious, giving the piece a sculptural presence while maintaining visual lightness.The restrained design and quality of execution place this lamp within the aesthetic vocabulary of high-end Italian productions of the late 1960s, in the spirit of luxury modernism.Original patina. Minor wear consistent with age. Excellent overall
