Description

Adorable Alsatian wedding bonnetière, eighteenth time, solid polychrome pine. This furniture was lacquered a second time for the wedding of Anna Stoll (see photos) in 1826. The traces of original paintings of the eighteenth are still visible in places. It was common for families to pass on a wedding piece that was then repainted for the wedding of a girl or girl. Beautiful wrought ironwork, key mounting typical of Alsatian furniture for mounting / dismounting extremely easy (see photos). This bonnetière is in good condition, the colors are still very bright, only the splinters of paint testify to its great age and its authenticity. Beautiful piece of furniture full of history.
