Meissen - Love Disguised As A Fruit Vendor - Model No. 25

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Meissen - Cupid Disguised as a Fruit Vendor - Model No. 25Meissen porcelain figurine depicting a small winged Cupid disguised as a fruit vendor, holding a basket filled with fruit and offering a piece of fruit in his other hand.Model attributed to Johann Joachim Kaendler (1706-1775), circa the mid-19 century.Hand-painted polychrome porcelain with gold highlights. Cupid wears a white cap, a pink scarf, and a yellow drape. Rococo-style base with gilded decoration.Model number: 25.Height: 9 cm.Mark: crossed swords in blue under the glaze.Quality: first choice.Condition: very good overall condition. Minor chips on a few leaves and at the tip of a wing.

Dealer

Inewera antique
Antiquités
Mobile : +48575485047

Ignacego Paderewskiego 7
Szreniawa 62052