Description

A period Napoleon III mirror that elegantly incorporates the stylistic elements of the Louis XV / Rocaille style.Its curved molding, crafted from wood and gilded stucco, is richly adorned with a fluted pattern punctuated by pearls and leaf-shaped clasps.The piece is crowned by a beautiful, openwork, asymmetrical pediment, finely carved with a Rocaille shell surrounded by foliage, acanthus volutes, and floral garlands.It features beautiful original gilding, revealing subtle hints of red ground in places, attesting to its authenticity.The antique mirror glass is slightly pitted in places (see detailed photos)Original backing In good overall condition. Minor signs of wear on the gilding, consistent with its age, and slight pitting on the mirror's tin surface.
