Centerpiece Bowl Made Of Cut Crystal And Solid Silver - Léon Lapar, Paris, Circa 1880-1895

220 EUR

Signature : Léon Lapar

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Diameter : 23,5

Height : 6

Description

19th century (circa 1880-1895), made of cut crystal with a solid silver setting. The clear crystal bowl features a base adorned with a delicate, radiating cut star, surrounded by a wide rim embellished with a geometric frieze of diamond-shaped points. The entire piece is set along its rim with a simple and refined molded fillet mount in solid silver in the Louis XVI style. Hallmarks and signature: French fineness mark: Head of Minerva, 1st title (950/1000).Master silversmith's hallmark in a diamond shape: Léon Lapar (two crossed Ls and a silversmith's chisel; active in Paris at 16 rue de Choiseul from 1878 to 1897).Signature engraved in full on the outer rim: "L. Lapar".Dimensions: Diameter: 23.5 cmHeight: 6 cmCondition:Item presented as-is, requires cleaning (original oxidized patina on the

Dealer

Antiquités Lecourtois

Mobiliers et objets du XVII au XX éme siécle

Tel : 0233423011

Mobile : 0650523042

53 rue de la 101eme airborne

Carentan-les-Marais 50500

solid silver needs to be refreshed, and surface cleaning of the crystal is recommended). Good overall structure, with no cracks or major chips on the crystal, and slight signs of wear consistent with its age. Ideal as a centerpiece, a dessert bowl, or a fruit bowl. Shipping:Very careful and secure shipping within metropolitan France: EUR50 (reinforced packaging in double cardboard with shock-absorbing padding suitable for crystal, tracked shipping with insurance included). In-person pickup available upon request.