Pair Of Plates From The Compagnie Des Indes, 18th Century

2 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Length : 29cm

Width : 21cm

Description

Pair of octagonal dishes with beveled sides, a deep bowl, and a slightly raised rim accented with a reddish-brown border along the edge. In the center (bowl): A rich bouquet composed of pink peonies, multicolored flowers, and foliage, surrounded by a few scattered small flowers.On the rim: A harmonious alternation of six small floral bouquets and isolated small flowers arranged in a friezePorcelain from the East India Company, China, Qing Dynasty, Qianlong period (1736-1795), 18th century. In good overall condition with normal wear (slight enamel wear).

Dealer

Galerie Paola Lumbroso

The Artist Ceramic 20th and 21th centuries.

Mobile : 06 07 22 80 72

Paris 75016