Description

A pair of gilded bronze sculptures depicting a pair of parrots or parakeets in one piece and a squirrel in the other, by René Thénot.A very beautiful Art Deco-style pair, highly characteristic of this great animal sculptor (1893-1963), who participated in the International Colonial Exhibition in Paris in 1931.Here, he has created a remarkably delicate piece featuring very fine chiseling enhanced by a beautiful golden patina. Excellent overall condition, with the artist's signature on both pieces. A beautiful pair of art objects that will create a stunning decorative effect when displayed symmetrically. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking and careful, secure packaging. Invoice and certificate provided. Pickup available
