Hans Zatzka (austrian, 1859-1945) Virgin And Child Jesus

6 000 EUR

Signature : Hans Zatzka

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 86

Height : 113

Description

This beautiful religious painting is the work of the renowned Austrian artist Hans Zatzka (1859-Vienna - 1945).His canvases now fetch remarkable prices on the international art auction market. From 1877 to 1882, Hans Zatzka studied at the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts under Christian Griepenkerl and Carl von Blaas. As a student of the Academy, he received the Füger Gold Medal. A decorative painter, he was particularly fond of subjects from Wagnerian operas, as well as religious and mythological scenes. Zatzka is highly regarded for his portraits of young girls, his allegorical scenes with nymphs and putti, his Oriental genre scenes, and his Madonnas. To discover other works by this artist on our website, please consult references no. 620, 1720, 1728, 1933, and 2228. 2229. Bibliography:

Dealer

Alte Kunst
Fine Arts 17th - early 20th centuries
Tel : 004315137918
Mobile : 00436642605164
Fax : 004315137918

Spiegelgasse 21
Vienna 1010

"General Artist's Lexicon" by Thieme/Becker and "Dictionary of Austrian Artists" by Professor H. Fuchs (in German). Inscription: Signed H. Zatzka 1918, lower right; on the back of canvas original artist´s inscription in German: "Jede Art Vervielfaltigung vorbehalten. Hans Zatzka" (in English: "Each kind of repetition reserved by the artist. Hans Zatzka).Technique: Oil on canvas. Original solid wood frame, gold-plated and handmade. Dimensions: Unframed: 58 x 80 cm; Framed: 86 x 113 cm. Condition: Very good.