Description

Charming oval-shaped, larch chip box with lid, in the form and tradition of Alpine, Switzerland, Tyrol, Austria, Italy wedding boxes.

(Spanschachtel Brautschachtel) Here the side decor is paper dominoté, the top is adorned with an orgiasque watercolor engraving in the spirit of the Renaissance, it has retained the colors of its former splendor. Probably a box of confectionery offered on the occasion of a wedding, eighteenth or nineteenth, a rare object. (I recently saw another that was marked Conrad Sporlin Nurnberg) Dimensions: 12cm, 4.5cm x 6cm

Condition: very good considering the fragility of these ephemeral packaging, little paper wear, the wood has a little dried, and yawns a little.
