Description

DescriptionArmando Miravalls Bové paints a bouquet laid on its side across a dark tabletop in this signed oil painting. Creamy whites and lemon yellows catch the light in the foreground, while deep crimson blooms, touches of orange and cool green leaves give the arrangement depth. The stems fan out to the left, and a few fallen petals extend the composition to the right. Broad, layered brushstrokes give the petals a tangible texture against the quieter background. Rooted in the Spanish still-life tradition, the painting combines a familiar domestic subject with a vivid play of light and colour that would lend warmth to a dining room or living space.ArtistArmando Miravalls Bové (1916-1978) was a Spanish painter born in Barcelona.Artist DetailsAlso catalogued as Armand Miravalls Bové, the artist
