Description

Two-piece hand-blown clear studio art glass perfume bottle by Polish artist Magdalena Pejga. The piece features a flattened square-shaped body that tapers upward into a narrow neck. The transparent glass body and neck are decorated with a white frosted, sandblasted abstract pattern consisting of horizontal ring bands. The removable solid glass stopper features a clear lower section and is topped with a tiered, multi-ball frosted cobalt blue glass accent. The unglazed, matte base displays a uniform frosted texture. The item measures approximate 27 cm in height including the stopper, 10 cm in width, and 5.5 cm in depth. The total weight is approximate 565 g.
