Paris Porcelain Dessert Service With Floral Decoration

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

An elegant 19th-century Paris porcelain dessert service, decorated with polychrome floral motifs and accented by delicate, serrated-edge gold trim. This set is captivating for the fineness of its porcelain, the freshness of its colors, and the richness of its ornamentation. Each plate features a unique floral composition, lending the service a distinct charm and reflecting the meticulous care invested in its creation. The set comprises 14 dessert plates, a pair of footed fruit bowls, and two matching cake platters. A true testament to 19th-century dining culture, this service is equally suited for an elegant reception or as a display piece in a collection, where the quality of its decoration can be fully appreciated. The set is in good condition, with the porcelain retaining a beautiful luster and the gilding remaining vibrant.
