Description

Pair of 20th-Century Sculptural Lamps with Face DecorationA striking pair of table lamps featuring bases sculpted in the shape of stylized faces, evoking a primitive and artistic inspiration.The bases, crafted from a patinated, mineral-like terracotta, showcase expressive sculptural work, with simplified features, rounded volumes, and geometric details that underscore their unique character.The patina in shades of gray, beige, and white adds a subtle texture and an antique look to the whole. The flared, cylindrical lampshades, made of ecru fabric, diffuse a soft and warm light while balancing the sculptural presence of the bases.This pair of decorative lamps possesses an ethnic, brutalist, and contemporary character, ideal for adding an artistic and original touch to an eclectic interior or a refined decor.Sold as a
