Description

Early 20th-century terracotta sculptural jardinière / cachepot with original polychrome decoration on an elegant 19th-century Oriental side table featuring finely carved woodwork, intricate Mashrabiya lattice panels and decorative Arabic inscriptions in gold. The square, glass-covered top is inset with beautifully patterned silk fabric in soft gold and green tones. Raised on finely turned legs, this charming piece reflects the rich craftsmanship of the Orientalist period.
