Pendant Lamp By Sergio Mazza, 1960s

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

The "Tau" pendant lamp, designed by Sergio Mazza for Artemide in the 1960s, is a true expression of Italian design of that era and its ongoing pursuit of technical innovation and formal elegance. Crafted with a structure of matte nickel-plated brass and lacquered aluminum, the lamp stands out for its balance between industrial materials and aesthetic refinement. The diffuser consists of a glass bowl that ensures soft, diffused light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere, ideal for both modern and vintage settings.The clean, rigorous lines, combined with the construction quality typical of Artemide's production, make this piece particularly sought after by collectors and enthusiasts of designer lighting. It is in original vintage condition, with signs of aging consistent with its age, attesting to
