Description

A refined pair of Ginori porcelain vases, made between the late 18th century and the early 19th century, characterized by sophisticated formal elegance and exquisite painted decoration. The form, inspired by neoclassical models, features an ovoid body, a tall fluted neck, a slender foot, and a pair of sinuous handles that lend harmony and lightness to the overall design.The surface is embellished with delicate shades of lilac and light blue, gold fillets, and ornamental motifs in the classical style. At the center of the vases are evocative hand-painted landscape scenes, brought to life by figures, architecture, and rural vistas, enclosed within elegant decorative borders. The foot and ornamental bands feature geometric and Greek-inspired motifs, underscoring the refined neoclassical taste of the era.A pair of great
