PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Spanish Earthenware Plate With Blue Decoration - 19th Century

150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 30

Description

Spanish earthenware plate with blue decoration - 19th centuryBeautiful earthenware plate with blue decoration on a white background, featuring a rich Baroque-inspired motif of scrolls, volutes and stylized floral elements, symmetrically organized around a central motif.This type of decoration, typical of 19th-century Spanish production, evokes the great Iberian ceramic traditions influenced by the ancient decorations of Talavera or Manises.An antique label on the reverse specifies:"Spanish plate given by Uncle Louis Taver..., in memory of Bayonne, killed June 13, 1840", bringing an interesting period testimony and historical dimension to the object.Enamel showing a beautiful patina with light wear and minor flaws in keeping with its age.Diameter: 30 cmHeight: 4 cmQuality

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

decorative object, ideal as a wall display or to complement a collection of antique faience.