Description

Glazed ceramic planter by Jacques Blin (1920-1995), a leading figure in postwar French ceramics.Cylindrical in shape with a gently curved profile resting on a foot, it features a frieze of cartouches with engraved (sgraffito) decorations of stylized animals: a bird with wavy plumage and an ibex with spiral horns, its body rendered in fine hatching. The design stands out against a turquoise blue-green glaze characteristic of the artist, nuanced with dark drips and spots.This bestiary, at once naive and graphic, is the hallmark of Jacques Blin's work, which is highly sought after by collectors of 1950s-1960s ceramics.Signed "J Blin" on the base.Condition: Good overall condition. Minor chipping on the neck, due to normal use. Signs of wear on the base.
