Moroccan Nimcha Sword With Strong European Blade - Morocco, 17th Century

1 250 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Moroccan nimcha sword with strong European blade - Morocco, 17th centuryBeautiful, strong European blade from the 17th century. Typical 17th century blade frequently found in Europe mounted on ItalianItalian Schiavonas, Scottish boadswords to Hungarian and Polishfrom Hungary and Poland. Blades that were obviously heavily exportedand prized in North Africa, as they are frequently found mounted on17th century nimchas.At the level of the ricasso, presence of an Arab workshop hallmark.Probably the workshop that mounted the blade on the horn handle. At the level of the ricasso, presence of an Arabic workshop stamp.Pobably Italian blade in view of the serrated eyelashes common below the back of the blade.Single-edged straight blade with counter-edge on the last third.Horn handle. The

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu
Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120

ferrule at the bottom of the handle is missing.
Horn handle.Overall length 103.5cmBlade length 88cmWeight 1019gr