Description

A bold and charismatic centerpiece, this Italian Hollywood Regency sofa from the 1990s combines sculptural form with exuberant textile design. Its generous silhouette - deep seat, wide back and elegantly rounded arms - creates a welcoming presence, while the rich pattern of the upholstery transforms the sofa into a decorative work of art. The fabric sports a striking lion motif, woven in warm tones of red, gold, black and earthy neutrals, echoing the opulence and theatrical style that define the Hollywood Regency aesthetic. The rhythmic interplay of stylized animals and ornamental pattern details brings a sense of movement and exotic glamour, making the sofa as visually captivating as it is comfortable. Perfect on its own or integrated into an eclectic interior, this Italian three-seater sofa
