Description

A Louis XV throne made of walnut from the Tuscany region, characterized by an imposing structure of carved solid wood and leather upholstery, features a tall, wide backrest with a top slightly shaped like a gendarme's cap, upholstered in smooth leather in a warm brown/leather color. The seat is padded and rounded, finished along the edges with a neat row of burnished studs. The armrests follow a sinuous line and end with an elegant carved scroll motif featuring foliage patterns. 18th-century Tuscany. Dimensions: W 66 / D 60 / Seat H 52 / Backrest H 118. Authenticity is guaranteed. A sales invoice will be provided. We ship throughout Europe--please don't hesitate to contact us. We accept PayPal, Visa, and Mastercard.
