Description

Thesecandlesticks are directly inspired by the works of Meissonnier(1695-1750) and Caffieri (1678-1755), both great masters of theRocaille style under Louis XV, whose designs were reissuedin the 19th century. Large in size and in the Louis XV style, they arecrafted from silver-plated metal. Their dynamic andasymmetrical silhouette is characteristic of the Rocaille aesthetic.The base, wide andscalloped, alternates between supple curves and chamferededges. It is richly adorned with foliage scrolls(acanthus leaves), twisted ribs, and moldings. The shaft,baluster-shaped, features a pronounced twisted design. Itssurface, alternating between smooth sections and chiseled areas, highlights therelief decoration of scrolls and foliage that wind allalong the stem. It flares out at
