Baluster Vase - Paris Porcelain - Ep. Debut XIXe

790 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 23.5 cm

Description

PropertiesView / Product
Baluster-shaped, resting on a circular pedestal itself set on a quadrangular base. The slightly flared neck is preceded by a pronounced constriction at the shoulder, structuring the silhouette. It is fitted with two scrolled side handles, decorated with stylized foliage, attached by ties featuring plant elements in relief.On a gold background, each side features a large rectangular reserve with polychrome decoration.On the first side, an animal scene featuring a deer - a young stag - accompanied by a second reclining animal, probably a doe, in a wooded landscape structured by slender trees and architecture in the background, evoking a park or private estate setting.The second side features a lively pastoral scene: two goats are depicted in

Dealer

LA METAIRIE
French porcelain of 1700 / 1820
Mobile : 00 33 (0)6 68 23 93 30

Evreux 27730

the foreground, in a verdant landscape. In the background, a light construction such as a pavilion or animal park shelter is set in a wooded environment, completed by a fence.The entire vase is very richly enhanced with full gilding, covering the neck, shoulder, base and handles, with in places alternating matte and burnished gilding work, creating a contrast with the polychrome reserves.Dimension(s) : Height. 23.5 cm,Condition(s) : VERY GOOD CONDITION - Minimal chip picked up at the edge of the neck (Reprise invisible to the eye),Epoque :EARLY 19th century,Observation(s) : Minor wear from use.