PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Indochinese Furniture

1 500 EUR

Period : 20th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Solid wood
Length : 90cm
Height : 192cm
Depth : 42cm

Description

A striking display cabinet inspired by Asian design (China/Vietnam), crafted from natural wood with a warm patina and entirely hand-carved with traditional motifs.This asymmetrical, tiered piece consists of three stacked sections:Bullet Point: Upper section: An open niche on the left with an openwork frieze and a small, closed pagoda-shaped cabinet on the right, topped by a curved roof decorated with scroll motifs.Bullet Point: Middle section: Two doors: the one on the left features an openwork medallion with traditional latticework motifs, while the one on the right is adorned with a panel carved in high relief depicting axes (symbols of longevity), pine trees, birds, and deer in a landscape.Lower Section: An intermediate shelf highlighted by a wide band richly carved with

Dealer

Niduantiquaire
antiquaire
Mobile : 0611759682

L'Union 31240

foliage, flowers, bats (symbols of happiness), and birds. It rests on a base that opens via a small door decorated with a lotus motif on the left and open niches on the right, all supported by curved, carved legs.The sides of the piece are also adorned with panels carved with trees (bamboo and plum trees). A piece of cabinetry of great ornamental richness.