Description

A charming Art Nouveau-style desk or nightstand lamp, fully restored by us. The brass frame, finely crafted in a naturalistic style, rests on a circular base decorated with a stylized leaf motif in relief. The sinuous stem, adorned with leaves and vines, ends in an articulated arm that allows the light beam to be directed. The three-screw brass mount supports a delicate, vintage flower-shaped shade made of blown and hot-worked glass; it features a fluted surface and a gradient coloring that transitions from raspberry pink at the top to edged, translucent petals with opalescent reflections. Condition: The lamp has undergone a complete and meticulous restoration. The brass has been carefully cleaned and polished to restore it to its original luster. The glass is in excellent condition. The electrical wiring has been
