Description

A beautiful and rare 17th-century wedding chest from the Tuscan-Roman tradition, suitable for use as a treasure chest, made entirely of dark walnut with characteristics typical of central Italy, both in the double-panel moldings and in the rounded, "loaf-shaped" base. Its original top features a coffin-shaped design, evoking a distinctly 16th-century style.Based on this information, the piece can be dated to the early 17th century; it was likely crafted by a cabinetmaker as a model for a wedding chest or as a jewelry box.Its dimensions are: 83 x 31 x 37 cm.A certificate of authenticity is included with the sale.The piece is in perfect condition and requires no restoration.For further information regarding this chest and our extensive selection of 17th-century furniture, please do not hesitate to contact us.
