

Pedestal Style Transition In Bronze And Onyx Circa 1880

2 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 49

Height : 76

Depth : 34

<https://www.proantic.com/en/416582-pedestal-style-transition-in-bronze-and-onyx-circa-1880.html>

Description

Double oval shaped pedestal table in the style of Adam Weisweiler In gilded bronze and onyx transition style Circa 1880 Headband in varnished walnut colored sheet, decorated with a frieze Resting on 4 bronze feet ending with claw feet and joined by a tablet of crotch shape kidney The onyx trays are surrounded by a gallery openwork In very good condition * Adam Weisweiler (Rhineland, 1744-1820), master cabinetmaker in Paris in 1778, established in the Faubourg Saint-Antoine, had made a specialty refined little furniture, with fine and nervous lines, often adorned with lacquers and porcelains: pedestal tables, tables with books, happiness of the day, consoles ... He became the supplier of the Court of France, of Marie-Caroline of Austria Queen consort of Naples, of Maria Feodorovna,

Dealer

Galerie Lauretta

Antiquaire Généraliste, Objets D'art

Tel : 04 93 49 45 03

Mobile : 06 09 53 78 92

248 av Maréchal Juin

Mandelieu 06 210

daughter-in-law of Catherine II, and of the high French or English aristocracy. He also worked under the Empire.