Description

A collection of sketches of female silhouettes on paper4 expressive figure drawings, created in charcoal on paper.Dynamic gestural studies, imbued with minimalism, depicting female nudes and silhouettes in motion. The artist uses unique, fluid lines combined with a distinct trail of dark, dotted accent marks that follow the alignment of the figures' spines and body axes.A single large sheet of matte, neutral taupe-colored cardboard has been precisely cut to form four distinct rectangular openings. This creates a balanced negative space and allows the individual gestural drawings to "breathe" visually.The frame features a two-tone profile with a blackened or dark outer edge paired with a prominent, recessed gold inner rim. The frame's thickness lends it considerable physical weight and presence, transforming four
