Collection Of Phrenological Heads, 19th Century

6 500 EUR

Signature : divers

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Plaster

Description

An important set of five phrenological heads from the first half or the middle of the 19th century.The collection includes, from left to right:-An early plaster phrenological head signed by Guy Aîné and dating from the 1850s -A rare, richly decorated plaster phrenological head signed "Fowler's improved head," dating from the 1860s-1870s -The original model of Fowler's classic phrenological head, dating from the mid-19th century-A small French phrenological head, of which we have found no other known examples, featuring the complete "organon" of Gall, circa 1840-A large white plaster head, without inscriptions, certainly from Guy Aîné's workshop The set is in fairly good condition. Only the Guy Aîné head shows some wear.A rare set.

Dealer

Le Zograscope

Instruments scientifiques et médicaux anciens

Tel : +33688778366

5 rue de Condé

Paris 75006