Description

This impressive pair of monumental terracotta craters is inspired by the large ceremonial vases of ancient Greece. Created during the second half of the 20th century, these large decorative urns combine classical elegance with the warm character and timeless charm of terracotta.With their generous proportions and bold architectural silhouette, the craters evoke the forms of ancient Greek vases traditionally used in important civic and ceremonial settings. Their sculptural presence and the elegant patina of their terracotta surface make them ideal centerpieces for gardens, terraces, courtyards, entryways, or large interior spaces.The monumental scale and classical inspiration of these pieces make them particularly well-suited for landscaping projects, private gardens, and interiors seeking a distinct
