Description

A remarkable pair of finely chased and gilded bronze candlesticks from the Empire period.Their architectural design draws inspiration from the stylistic elements of ancient columns, in the monumental style characteristic of early 19th-century creations under Napoleon I.The particularly elegant cylindrical shafts are adorned with a succession of finely chiseled vegetal friezes and interlaced motifs, evoking the decorative elements of the great commemorative columns of the period, notably the Vendôme Column.The flared candle holders feature a delicate scalloped and gadrooned border. The circular bases, richly adorned with relief rosettes and radiating friezes, harmoniously complete the ensemble.A refined pair of candlesticks, reflecting the neoclassical taste and decorative
