Description

Here is a wall piece of strong decorative impact. Cast iron fireback, the relief decor depicting winged putti flanking a shield of arms topped with a crown, in the decorative tradition of the Renaissance. Intended to be placed at the back of the hearth, it protects the wall and radiates heat. A fine heraldic decor in the antique style. To set at the back of the hearth or hang as a wall panel, it will appeal to lovers of characterful decor.
