Description

- Oil on canvas. Original canvas. Hand-signed.- In this delicate composition by René Vandervoodt, the gentleness and tenderness of this verdant, river-filled Europe are captured in a serene tranquility: the soft meadow, the light-colored facade with its reddish roofs, and the trees with their dense foliage breathe, with understated grace, at the water's edge. In the foreground, the slender, curved trunk of a young tree seems to sway gently with the current; it stands like a silent, almost meditative threshold, marking the peaceful boundary between the garden--this cultivated space, woven from memory and form--and the very beginning of the watercourse. There, a dark, shimmering reflection extends the harmony of the landscape toward the unfolding of what flows and transforms, within
