Description

Refined and unique eclectic single bed, crafted from carved wood and finished in a matte, tempera-based lacquer in pastel tones, shades of white, sage green, ochre, pink, and light blue.
The bed features exceptionally elaborate ornamentation, including phytomorphic elements such as floral garlands. At the top, nestled within a graceful shell motif, are two cornucopias overflowing with luscious fruit. A charming detail is found at the corners of the headboard, where two delightful cherubs lend the piece a playful, fairytale-like atmosphere. Furthermore, both along the side rail and at the center of the footboard, there are carved, fantastical masks, blending human and plant-like features, which create a unique and evocative contrast. The furniture features an interlocking design, which allows the front panels to be easily joined to the side panels. This sophisticated and singular bed, distinguished by its sinuous lines and finely executed carvings, is sure to add a touch of classic elegance and historic charm to any interior. Italian craftsmanship, dating to the Art Nouveau (Liberty) period, circa the late 19th century.
