Description

An interesting set of four small oil studies attributed to Vettore Zanetti Zilla (Venice 1864 - Milan 1946), depicting a view of Venice and three landscapes characterized by expansive, cloudy skies.The works, created between 1942 and 1944, are distinguished by their free, rapid, and textured brushwork, with particular attention to atmospheric and lighting effects, rendered through delicate shades of blue, gray, green, and white.Three of the paintings are oil on cardboard, while the Venetian view is painted on a thin panel and features an additional preparatory sketch on the reverse side.Three works are signed "Zanetti Zilla," while the view of Venice bears a monogram in the lower left corner.Of particular interest is the inscription on the back of one of the paintings, which refers to Tremezzo (Como), a
