Description

A charming Louis XVI-style silver-plated bronze hot water bottle lamp, reimagined with a decidedly practical and decorative flair. This elegant piece features a circular base accented with a row of beads, a side carrying handle, and a delicate, removable molded glass shade.It is topped with a matte black lampshade accented with fine silver fillets that beautifully highlight the soft light cast by the candle. The lamp stands 34 cm tall.To preserve the original spirit of these portable lamps--designed to accompany their owners through the various rooms of the home--we have chosen to equip it with a USB-rechargeable candle. This solution allows you to rediscover the object's portable and intimate character while enjoying the convenience of modern lighting. Traditional
