PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Meissen - Pair Of Figurative Candlesticks, Models D176 And D177, Ernst August Leuteritz, 1855-186

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Meissen - Pair of figurative candlesticks, models D176 and D177, Ernst August Leuteritz, 1855-1860Pair of porcelain candlesticks from the Meissen manufactory, later converted into table lamps.The compositions depict a gentleman accompanied by a young girl and a lady accompanied by a young boy, both dressed in Rococo-era costumes. The sculpted bases are adorned with rocaille motifs in relief, plant motifs, and gilding.Hand-painted decoration in cobalt blue under glaze, enhanced with polychrome details and gilding.Manufacturer: Meissen, Germany.Sculptor: Ernst August Leuteritz.Models: D176 and D177.Models created: 1855-1860.Period of manufacture: late 19th - early 20th century.Markings: blue crossed swords under the glaze.Height with electrical

Dealer

Inewera antique

Antiquités

Mobile : +48575485047

Ignacego Paderewskiego 7

Szreniawa 62052

sockets: 34 cm.Condition: excellent overall condition, with possible traces of a previous minor restoration on the hands of the gentleman and the girl. The electrical assembly still needs to be completed.Sold only as a pair.