Description

19th-Century Hall Lantern: Engraved Baccarat Crystal & Bronze, in Original ConditionA magnificent and authentic late 19th-century hallway or entryway lantern in the Directoire Transition style. A piece of great finesse, ideal for adding character to an entryway, hallway, or stairwell Impeccable frosted crystal cylinder adorned with a superb floral design, engraved and cut with palmette motifs and six-petaled flowers. The striking contrast between the glossy motifs and the matte background is characteristic of Baccarat's craftsmanship. No chips or cracks.Original openwork bronze/brass structure and galleries. The piece is sold as-is.Extremely rare suspension system: the lantern remains complete with its three twisted brass chains, its balancing pulley, and its original eye-cover cap
