Description

A superb antique piece from the Napoleon III period, remarkable for the elegance of its lines and the finesse of its marquetry work.Its oval-shaped top features a rich marquetry design of foliage, floral garlands, and musical motifs on a burl wood background. This central design is accented by a floral frieze on a blackened wood background and an edge bordered by gilded bronze molding.This top opens to reveal an oval mirror framed by a molded border, unveiling a compartmentalized storage compartment ideal for precious objects or sewing supplies.The apron, also embellished with delicate floral marquetry and adorned with chiseled bronze finials at the corners, rests on four tapered, turned legs of blackened wood, enhanced with gilded spindles and collars. A carved crossbar, featuring the same
