Original Chinese Propaganda Poster, Beijing, China, Circa 1960

400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 54 cm

Height : 78 cm

Description

Original Chinese propaganda posters, printed by State Printing House No. 5 in Beijing.Recently framed with a black border.These posters highlight a variety of themes: rural life, steel production, the friendship between Karl Marx, Vladimir Lenin, and Mao Zedong Dong, insect and rat extermination, support for the struggle for civil rights for Black Americans, dedication to work, reading the Little Red Book, glorification of Mao Zedong's thought , and... They often feature stereotypical depictions: a poster showing Chinese soldiers crushing a greenish American soldier with hooked fingers and a hooked nose under a giant foot, a massive fist crushing American leaders, etc...A codified and limited visual language is deliberately used to make an impact on the viewer.Some are vertical and others

Dealer

Galerie Canavèse

Decorative Arts of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth Centuries

Tel : 09 50 75 60 25

Mobile : 06 08 41 29 80

Fax : 01 42 60 50 26

21 rue des Saints Pères

Paris 75006

are horizontal.Sold individually