Framed Samurai Jinbaori From The Kasai Clan--edo Period (1603-1868).

111 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Height : 87 cm.

Depth : 65 cm.

Description

JAPAN - Edo period (1603-1868).Samurai jinbaori in cream-colored silk adorned with a geometric pattern; the collar is made of black silk and features four-leaf clover motifs and a braided pattern.Framed; the back of the frame is cut out to reveal the clan crest adorning the back of the jinbaori.In good overall condition; a small tear is visible on the left side.Dimensions of the jinbaori: 87 x 65 cm.Dimensions of the frame: 105 x 95 cm.Notes: The jinbaori is a ceremonial coat worn by samurai over their armor, particularly during military campaigns and ceremonies. Generally sleeveless or with short sleeves, it served to cover and distinguish the wearer's armor. Made from precious fabrics, sometimes embroidered and adorned with heraldic motifs or the mon (family crest), it also served as a sign of rank and clan

Dealer

ANTIQUES YF
Arts du samurai et Arts du Japon
Mobile : 0608649576

4 allee de pomone
Gressy 77410

affiliation. Through its decorations and materials, the jinbaori thus conveyed the prestige, identity, and authority of its wearer.