Description

Second Large Embroidered Silk Velvet Cushion - 19th Century (an identical second one is for sale in my gallery)Crafted from a remarkable fragment of 19th-century embroidered silk velvet, this very large cushion showcases the elegance of antique decorative textiles.The sumptuous embroidery, executed in silk threads in delicate shades of green, gold, cream, and powder pink, features a design of stylized scrolls, foliage, and fruit of great finesse. The velvet, a deep ruby red with iridescent sheen, offers an incomparable luster and highlights the rich texture of the embroidery.Each cushion has been handcrafted to preserve the full beauty of this antique fabric. The back is made of a solid-colored silk that harmoniously complements the front. A discreet zipper allows for easy removal of the
