Description

This superb bronze by Auguste Moreau captures all the innocence and mischief of childhood. The sculpture depicts two adorable cherubs at play, crafted with remarkable finesse that brings to life every detail of the drapery, the curls of their hair, and their wings. The two cherubs are playfully squabbling. One of them, winged, is sitting on the other's back and brandishing a small twig, while the other lies on the ground, defending himself.Resting on an elegant, molded base adorned with a beaded frieze and a stained wooden pedestal, this collectible piece with timeless neoclassical charm will add a touch of refined elegance, history, and poetry to your decor.A true masterpiece of 19th-century statuary art, this bronze sculpture is ideal for enriching your collection or as an exceptional gift that will
